Teacher Work Day

- Start Early: Review notes daily over several weeks prior to exams
- Study in Chunks: DO NOT cram. Research shows that studying in smaller chunks improves information retention.
- Utilize Study Tools: Highlight key concepts, make flashcards, use sticky notes.
- Work with Teachers: Write questions about those things that are still confusing. Utilize seminars leading up to exams to get help from teachers.
- Use Resources: Review previous tests/quizzes. Utilize study guides if provided.
- Study Buddies: Form study groups with classmates
- Fuel your Brain: Take breaks. The brain needs time to rest and to process information. Exercise! Exercise releases endorphins that help the brain function better. Eat nutritious food and hydrate with water. Get plenty of rest!
- Relax: Have confidence in your learning over time
